Addleshaw Goddard, an international firm of almost 250 years in the making is trusted by over 3,000 major organisations, including 50 FTSE 100 companies, to solve problems, deliver deals, defend rights, comply with regulations, and mitigate risk. Their work spans more than 50 areas of business law for clients across multiple industries in over 100 countries worldwide. Although the client challenges may vary, their approach to solve them is through the same, single-minded focus: finding the smartest way to achieve the biggest impact.

Yendall Hunter provides independent, objective, impartial, expert advice in relation to capital projects that have often failed to meet cost and/or schedule expectations. The focus of their work is to provide independent and impartial advice to those involved in international construction and engineering projects (including employers, contractors, governments, insurers, or funders) as to the causes of time and/or cost overruns or advising on how to deal with current problems on distressed projects.
